Arts and Sciences General Education (GE) Program: The GE program for untagged B.A. and B.S. degrees in Arts and Sciences was approved by the Council on Academic Affairs on May 26, 2010, after receiving approval from the Arts and Sciences Faculty Senate. All the programs presented here follow the approved GE program.

College of Arts and Sciences Transition Policy: The College of Arts and Sciences is committed to the principles outlined in the university’s Pledge to Undergraduate Students. Each unit has a plan on how best to assist its majors and minors through the transition. And the Arts and Sciences Academic Advising Services will advise students on how to transition their GE program. Dual advising is the existing process used in Arts and Sciences and will continue under semesters.

Professor Larry Krissek
Chair, Arts and Sciences CCI
Re: Italian BA and minor

Dear Professor Krissek:

The CCI’s Arts and Humanities 2 subcommittee met on April 6, 2011, and reviewed the semester conversion plans for the Italian BA and Italian Minor that were submitted by the Department of French and Italian. The committee had reviewed these programs in an earlier meeting and made suggestions for correction and clarification. The committee had only a few, relatively minor comments on the revised programs. Rather than send the programs back for such small changes (which would have added unnecessary delay), the committee voted unanimously to send them on to the full CCI for review.

If the CCI sends the programs back for changes, we note the following concerns that can be addressed then. (These apply to the BA, except two, which, as noted, apply to the minor as well.)

- The curriculum map mentions Italian 2101, but this should be 2102.

- Program requirements and List of Courses:
  - Should Italian 3797 be listed? Should it also be listed under major requirements #4 (next page)? These questions apply to the minor as well.
  - Italian 5195: Is this the correct number for a group studies course? Also, should it be added in curriculum map? The first question also applies to the minor

- Courses 2193 and 5193 are missing from the curriculum map

- On the BA advising sheet at the bottom of the page, “Two 4000-level courses” should probably say “4000-level or higher.”

Sincerely,

Wm. Mitchell Masters

College of Arts and Sciences

Dear Larry,

The Department of French and Italian has completed its proposal for semester versions of its Italian undergraduate programs:

BA in Italian
Minor in Italian

The Arts and Humanities Disciplinary Advisory Panel for Curriculum within the College of Arts and Sciences reviewed and unanimously approved the undergraduate programs from French and Italian during its February 4, 2011 meeting. The BA in Italian has an assessment plan on file with OAA, verified October 15, 2010.

Most specifically, I have highlighted the important changes for each program below:

Bachelor of Arts in Italian: The BA in Italian was last revised and approved by CAA on January 17, 2007. The undergraduate BA is changing with minimal changes. The quarter-based degree is a minimum of 50 credit hours with 20 credit hours in pre-requisites, and its semester-based version is 30 credit hours with 12 credit hours of pre-requisites. The department has added four optional new courses, one a GE, and three study abroad Maymester options. The department has provided a detailed transition plan for students beginning the pre-requisite course-work in Italian at the 1101/101-stage, and continuing their studies into the major course-work.

Minor in Italian: The Minor in Italian was last updated and approved by CAA on January 17, 2007. The quarter-based program is 20 credit hours with 20 credit hours of pre-requisites. The semester-based program is 12 credit hours beyond 1103, with 12 credit hours of pre-requisites (1101-1103). The minor is a course-to-course translation: 4 courses required in the minor course work in quarters, and still 4 courses required in the minor on semesters. Note: 2102 is taught in the language, and another course at the 3000-level and above is required. Therefore, the minor fulfills the ASC rule of 6 credit hours at the 3000-level or above or courses at the 2000-level taught in the language.

We are sending these undergraduate programs forward for review and approval in the next stage of curricular review at the Arts and Sciences Committee on Curriculum and Instruction.
The courses that are specific to all of the programs are listed under the Book 3 Listing of Italian. The courses have been advanced in PACER. All programs from French and Italian have the approval of Arts and Humanities. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to call or email me at 292-5727 or williams.1415@osu.edu.

Thank you for your consideration of these proposals,

Re: Chair's letter for semester conversion for Italian

Undergraduate program

Since we recently revised our undergraduate program (2006) we had little to change. Janice Aski, director of the undergraduate language program, developed a list of ideas for possible modifications to the program for the Italian faculty to consider. Prof. Aski met with all the faculty members and a consensus was reached on the issues presented. The following changes were made based on the discussions:

- Italian 425 (now 3323) became repeatable up to 6 credits;
- a new course, 3224 Post-Unification Italy, was added since this is an area of expertise of a relatively new faculty member;
- a new GEC course, 2055 Mafia Movies, has been added;
- the title of Italian 423 The Italian Language Yesterday and Today was changed to Italian 3330 The Italian Language through Time. Since 423 covered a lot of material (the Roman expansion to the use of Italian to today), the course was divided into two: 3330 and 3331 The Languages of Italy;
- a new writing course, 3103 Styles and Stylistics, was added. Students are able to take courses that focus on reading or on speaking, but the previous curriculum did not have a course that focused exclusively on developing writing skills.
- a new film course cross-listed with French (FRIT 4053: French and Italian Cinema to 1952) was created.
- three Maymester study abroad programs were added to increase the study abroad options of our students, two taught in Italian: 3798.01 The Italian City, 3798.02 Experience Italy, and 3797 Italy abroad, which is taught in English;
- Independent and Group Studies courses are now taken for grades; they are no longer S/U.

Prof. Aski proposed a new major: Romance Studies. The proposal was drafted in 2009 and circulated to all the departments involved, including the chairs of French and Italian, Spanish and Portuguese, Slavic and Classics. Based on the comments received, the proposal was revised and resubmitted. After further discussion, additional changes were made and the proposal was distributed to the chairs again in Fall, 2010. The proposal is still under discussion and we hope to have a final draft to submit shortly.

Graduate program

The Italian faculty met five times during the 2009-2010 academic year to discuss revision of the graduate courses. This was done at the same time that we created our proposal for a PhD program in Italian. We submitted the proposal in Fall 2010. The goals of the revision process were to increase the variety of courses offered and create a series of courses that can be taken by both French and Italian students in order to consolidate faculty resources. The Italian faculty of the Department of French and Italian has submitted a proposal to establish a program to be designated Ph.D. in Italian Studies. The department currently offers a successful M.A. degree program in Italian, and both an M.A. and a Ph.D. program in French. The need for enhanced language and cultural studies teaching capacity and expertise focusing on Italy is felt nationally. It is an anomaly within the American university system that an Italian section of our depth and breadth of expertise does not already run its own Ph.D. program or directly recruit Ph.D. students for the University. The present Italian faculty provides excellent theoretical depth and disciplinary breadth, offering support for and in turn benefiting from the work of faculty elsewhere on campus who share the Department's theoretical and/or regional commitments. Four major factors support our potential to become one of the most dynamic programs nationally: our proven track record as a provider of excellent teaching in Italian language and culture; the recent hiring of new faculty in our core subject areas; the excellent existing (and growing) library collections in Italian; the unparalleled faculty resources that Ohio State can offer Italian Studies, from our associations with the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies, to the Center for the Study of the Religion, to the program in Film Studies, not to mention our ties with other departments in the university. The proposal has been approved by the College of Arts and Sciences.

Italian Program Transition policy

In the quarter system, four quarters were required to satisfy the language requirement (It. 101, 102, 103, 104). In the semester system, three semester courses satisfy the same requirement (It. 1101, 1102, 1103). The following comparison lists the courses and the chapters covered. Note that the chapters covered in each course are the same except for 1103, which has one additional chapter. The additional materials covered in each course come from the current 104 or are materials that accompany the textbook that we have not had time to use in the quarter system. We believe that this change will enhance our courses and improve acquisition among our undergraduates.

<td>1103: 11-16 + additional materials</td>
</tr>

Students who enter semesters with 101 or 102 will simply take the next course in the sequence in the semester system. Students who have 103 in the quarter system will take a 7-week bridge course that will cover the material in 104 of the quarter system. This course will be offered in Summer and Fall 2012. 103 students who fail to take one of these bridge courses during the two semesters that they are offered will be required to take 1103.

Summary: In this model we offer one 7-week bridge course: 1104.

Transition for majors and minors

Students under the current quarter system need 50 hours for the major and 20 hours for the minor, all beyond the required 200-level course. Under the semester system, students will be required to take 30 hours for the major and 12 hours for the minor.

Fortunately, we do not have any sequential courses at the major and minor levels and will thus not need to provide bridge or transitional courses. We are assuming that the Registrar's Office will provide a semester-hour version of the students' transcripts, thus making it easy for us to determine where the student is in terms of his or her progress toward completing the major or minor. All courses that the student has taken for the quarter-hour major or minor will be converted and will count toward the semester-hour major or minor.
Over the 2011-2012 academic year, faculty members will meet with their advisees to assess where the student is in his or her progress toward completing the major and minor. Faculty members will help the student plan those courses that he or she needs in the semester system to complete the major or minor. We will exercise flexibility in those courses that count toward the major, making exceptions where needed and waiving requirements if necessary, though this is not anticipated.

Transition for MA students

We do not expect complications at the MA level. The current MA requires 12 courses (2 courses/quarter in two years) and the MA in the semester system will require 12 courses (3 courses/semester). So students who begin the MA in the quarter system will finish in the semester system and have the same number of courses.
Course Requirements

Students choosing to minor in Italian must complete the following requirements:
